

Consular Corps

pull out all the stops for their Annual Ball

ON OCTOBER 19, THE WHO'S WHO OF CAPE TOWN
WILL GATHER AT PIGALLE RESTAURANT, GREEN POINT - THE VENUE FOR THE
GLITTERING CONSULAR BALL

The Consular Ball hosted for the first time by the Cape Town Consular Corps last year was a glittering affair where the who's who of Cape Town dug deep in their pockets to help make a difference in the lives of many local young people. One of the evening's highlights was the unconventional and exciting auction of items that cannot be bought in a shop. This year's auction items are even more unique and promise to again attract a lot of interest.

GUESTS AT THE CONSULAR BALL WILL BE ABLE TO BID ON:

- A racquet from tennis legend Roger Federer at the highest bidder's home.
- Tea with Tutu - Archbishop Desmond Tutu will take the highest bidder to tea
- Premier Helen Zille will host a dinner for two people at her home in Leeuwenhof
- International crime best-selling author, Deon Meyer, will give a small role in his next film to the highest bidder
- Chef Bertus Basson from Top 10 restaurant Overture will prepare a gourmet 3-course dinner for six
- A piece of framed and signed memorabilia from Gary Player with a game for 4 golfers at De Zalze Golf Estate in Stellenbosch.
- An evening with sculptor Dylan Lewis, who is one of only a handful of living artists to have had a solo auction at prestigious international auction house Christie's of London. Dylan will host an evening at his studio outside Stellenbosch for 20 guests which will include a walk around

The business community of Cape Town can share in this prestigious event by sponsoring a table or an aspect of the evening

his Sculpture Garden, a talk on how a sculpture is made as well as a casting of one of his bronze masterpieces

“It is my pleasure to endorse the Cape Town Consular Corps Ball, a unique event that harnesses goodwill and much-needed resources for worthy causes helping children and young people in disadvantaged circumstances. It is commendable that over 40 consular missions represented in Cape Town support the Ball to make it this one-of-a-kind fundraising platform. I encourage everyone who can to be generous in the auction and I look forward to hosting the two winners of the dinner that I am glad to contribute to this philanthropic effort.”
